Calculate your APS

The Admission Point Score (APS) helps universities assess whether you meet the entry requirements for the programme you've applied to. It's a simple, standardised way to evaluate your academic performance.

How is your APS calculated?
Your APS is calculated using the marks from your six best subjects in Grade 11 or Grade 12 – excluding Life Orientation. Each subject is awarded points based on the percentage you achieved:

Sub Subject	Percentage (%)	APS
Setswana	72%	6
English	69%	5
Dance Studies	85%	7
Mathematics	82%	7
Accounting	69%	5
Business Studies	76%	6
	Total APS	36

APS: International & Cambridge Applicants

If you attended a private or international school, including those offering the Cambridge International Curriculum, you can still calculate your Admission Point Score (APS) to check if you meet the entry requirements for NWU programmes.

Use the APS Conversion Table on the NWU website to convert your international results to the South African system.
